Southern New Hampshire University is again partnering with Northeast Deaf & Hard of Hearing Services to provide free tax preparation to the deaf and hard of hearing community. The services are provided by fully trained faculty and student volunteers at the university as part of the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance program (VITA). SNHU is part of the Manchester Coalition, United way and AARP Tax Aide initiative.

Working with the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) to assist the community to meet their tax compliance obligations and educate individuals and families with disabilities about tax credits, deductions, and income inclusions available to improve the economic livelihood of people with disabilities. To schedule an appointment, contact NDHHS.
